Abbeyfield features

Built in 1915, Avondale is a house full of character and charm. We are proud to offer older people security, companionship and support to remain both mentally and physically active in later life. Our team is dedicated to providing a nurturing homely environment for our residents. We invest in the continued professional development of our staff to ensure the highest standards of care.

Our home has six studio style flatlets and two one-bedroom flats, all en-suite. Completing our home is a communal lounge, dining room and garden which residents are welcome to use at their leisure.

Your retirement

When you live with us you are part of our community and the wider local community too.

Connected by our staff and volunteers, people who choose to share their time with you organising popping in for a cup of tea and a chat, or being involved in the day-to-day life of our house.

We have established connections with people in our local community who offer varied conversation and a chance to compare different experiences. Variety is the key to any community and we're very proud to offer this at Avondale.

Your safety and quality assurance

You can't enjoy peace of mind without trust.

This is why Avondale is registered and regulated by Homes England.

But our quality control doesn't end there – the opinions of our residents matter too. We have regular resident and family meetings, so we can get feedback on how we can improve our service at Avondale.

“These aspects of life at Avondale sets us apart from other providers.”
